New Brockton Is Working For New Fire Truck

The town of New Brockton is in bad need of a fire truck. To fulfill this need the townspeople have been soliciting funds from the public to pay the $20,000 for a new truck. A $1,500 fee has been added to the water bills in New Brockton to help defray the cost. Also, a citizens group have organized to carry out fund raising projects including a "Miss New Brockton Fire Truck" beauty pageant on April 9. The new truck will not be delivered for several months and in the meantime New Brockton has borrowed a truck from the company building their new vehicle.

Mayor of New Brockton is L. F. Jones and Mike Sawyer is the New Brockton Fire Chief.

Chamber Plans To Reorganize

There are encouraging signs that the Elba Chamber of Commerce is to be revived. The Board of Directors from the last active chamber have found a well qualified businessman to assume the job of president and this in itself indicates sure success.

BY DR. MCLEOD

POISON DANGER POINTED OUT

Dr. C. D. McLeod, Coffee County Health Officer, urges that Coffee County recognize the dangers of poisonings and take the necessary precautions to prevent them. Some twenty persons in our state died from poisonings in 1970. These fatalities do not pinpoint our most serious problem which involves those children rushed to hospitals daily who have swallowed medicines and household products. Most of these cases are cured by rapid action and corrective measures.

"The Federal Hazardous Substances Act," states Dr. McLeod, "forces proper labeling of products. But we fail to read and heed the labels. Poisons must be marked with the skull and crossbones while potent poisons carry either the red WARNING signal or the yellow CAUTION sign. All of these potential killers should be stored in a locked cabinet."

Children under five years of age are involved in accidental poisonings most often. They can't read danger signals and must rely on a responsible adult to keep them safe from harm. Aspirin is the most common product to be ingested by these children. Adults become careless and provide the means of these accidents.

Dr. McLeod warns mothers that products should never be stored in soft drink bottles. Neither should medicines given to the child be referred to as candies. So many containers look alike that the label should be read each time it is used. It is better to be safe than sorry. When the phone rings or the doorbell sounds, be sure that your child is safe before answering. A matter of seconds is all it takes for little hands to discover and ingest poisonous substances.

Pesticides and insecticides can be effective when used properly. These same helpers may become harmful to children and pets who experiment with their contents. Make a habit of using substances according to specific instructions and of storing them in accordance with safe practices.

Act now before the emergency, not after the tragedy!

Elba Tigers To Play In Andalusia Jamboree

The Elba Tiger Football team, fresh from their intrasquad game last Friday night, will participate in a jamboree this Friday night. The game will be played in Andalusia. Elba is one of six teams in the jamboree.

The six teams in the event are Andalusia, Opp, Georgiana, Troy, Etahaul, and Elba. Each team will play a full half and will play only one of the other five.

The first half will be Georgiana against Troy. They will play a regular half and as they leave the field, Elba and Etahaul will tangle on and play a half. As these teams complete their half, Opp and Andalusia will round out the competition with two full quarters of play.

The first kick-off is at 7:00 p.m. in Andalusia. Tickets are on sale at Wise Men & Boys Store and Elba High School. Elba fans will be sitting on the home side with the Andy Bulldogs.

English Gets Appointments

Charles P. (Phil) English, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Bone of Elba, has received two military appointments. He first received appointment to attend West Point with the Army. This week he received appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Phil has indicated he will accept the Navy appointment which was extended by D. H. Guinn, Vice Admiral, U. S. Navy, Chief of Naval Personnel.

His letter from Guinn included the following paragraph: "Your appointment to the Naval Academy is the first step toward a career in the United States Navy, and is a step which will determine the pattern of your life. You agree to serve four years as a Midshipman at the Naval Academy, and after graduation to serve at least five years as an officer in the United States Naval Service. Great men of the past such as Albert Michaelson, Chester Nimitz, "Bull" Halsey, and Arleigh Burke, and more recently Alan Shepard, Wally Schirra, Jim Lovell, and Tom Stafford started their careers just as you. I know you are proud of your accomplishment and you have every right to be. Please accept my sincerest congratulations."

English is a senior at Elba High School and is an active and popular member of the student body. He has been a member of the Elba Tiger football team for several years.

He received his principal appointment from Congressman George Andrews and competitive appointments from Senators Jim Allen and John Sparkman. English reports for navy training on June 30, 1971.

Farmers Using Cost-Sharing Reminded Of Date

Farmers who are doing conservation cost-sharing work under the Rural Environmental Assistance Program have been reminded that it is important to observe the completion date set when the practice was approved.

"When a farmer receives approval from the County ASC Committee for conservation or pollution abatement work on his farm, we set aside part of our fund allocation to share the cost of the work," said Mr. Leon Weeks, Chairman of the Coffee County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

"At the same time we set a reporting date for completion of his practice, after a realistic appraisal of the time likely to be needed to get the work done," Mr. Weeks said. "It is most important for a farmer to observe this reporting date. Many agricultural conservation and pollution abatement practices are needed and requested by farmers in Coffee County. We do not have enough funds to share costs with all who apply."

"When a farmer fails to report he has completed his REAP practice, we are left up in the air—not knowing whether to re-allocate the funds for another needed practice by another farmer."

"The farmer who makes a timely report of completion has assurance of cost-sharing on his practice. Also, we can re-use program funds if a cost sharing practice costs less than originally approved for or if a farmer is unable to or decides not to carry out his REAP practice."

The ASC Committee Chairman said a farmer is unable to complete his conservation cost-sharing work before the completion reporting date should request a time extension from the County ASC Committee, stating the reasons he has not been able to complete the work. Requests for time extensions for REAP practices should be made as soon as the farmer knows he will not be able to complete the work in time, and, in any case, before the date has arrived for reporting completion.

With spring around the corner there'll be more weekend outings ahead in the family car, no doubt. But one scene you'll want to by-pass on those holidays is the auto repair shop.

So, now is the time to plan ahead, and have the car serviced properly. Your check list should include:

THE COOLING SYSTEM: Have the radiator flushed and refilled with new coolant. Be sure all belts and hoses are replaced where necessary.

ENGINE: Have a tune-up if not done in the last year. Check the ignition system if you have not had service within the past six months.

STEERING, TIRES, SUSPENSION: Be concerned with wheel balance and alignment, the condition of your tires and shock absorbers, and any part that affects the steering of your car.

LUBRICATION: Besides changing the oil and filter, this operation should include lubrication and a check for leaks, corroded parts of the exhaust system, and loose nuts and bolts.

Incidentally, can you remember when you last had a gasoline filter changed? In a survey of 150 service stations, 60 percent reported cases of motorists stranded during the past year due to clogged gasoline filters. Most car manufacturers recommend a new fuel filter element every year, ideally in the spring or before you start on a long trip. The cost is minimal.

Elba Native Succeeds Over Handicap

(Editors Note: Taken from the February edition of "Hearstlight", the official publication of the Department of Adult Blind and Deaf, Alabama Institute for Deaf and Blind, Talladega, Alabama.)

Mrs. Larry Randolph, formerly Miss Linda Tice of Elba, Alabama, is employed as a Key Punch Operator by the Birmingham Trust National Bank. Mrs. Randolph is a lovely 22 year old dark blonde whose warm, friendly personality makes her popular with her fellow workers just as she was when a student at the Alabama School for the Deaf in Talladega. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Tice of Elba.

Linda Tice entered the School for Deaf at an early age and continued as a student there until her graduation. As a student she was identified as one of good conduct and keen intelligence. She was chosen twice as Miss ASD during her school years. After graduation from the School for the Deaf, Linda worked briefly as a typist at Fort Rucker.

In September, 1969, Linda enrolled at the Special Technical Facility for the Blind and Deaf in Talladega where she took training in Key Punch operation. At this Facility she was again very popular and rated a superior student by her instructors. She completed her training with honors in record time. A courtship developed between Linda and Larry Randolph, a student in printing. They are happily married and live in the West End section of Birmingham.

On July 13, 1970, Linda was hired as a Proof Operator. Within a week she was elevated to the position of Key Punch Operator—where she remains.

ANN ENGLISH & MYRNA LOY THOMAS

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

Congratulations to our Student of the month, Harriette Bullard! She's a senior and we're certainly proud of her.

Harriette's favorite interests are eating and gossiping — who's aren't? Her hobbies are swimming, skiing and cooking.

Her interests after high school is finding a rich husband! All boys get to work! Really, Harriette hasn't decided about that yet.

Harriette is very young at heart so therefore her favorite teacher is her first grade teacher, and her favorite class, first grade. She is also very active. She is a member of the Beta Club, French Club, F.H.A., Jr. Music Club, and the Mu Alpha Theta. Her pet peeve is Macbeth. Harriette believes a boy should be fun loving but hard working in all aspects. She says our school would be a lot better if it had better facilities and fewer rules.

Harriette's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bullard. We're sure they're as proud of her as we are.

HARRIETTE BULLARD

WHAT IF

--Natalie King weighed 450 pounds.

--All the Junior girls got married.

--All the Seniors of 71 became seniors of 72.

--We had napkins in the lunchroom.

--Coach Griffin weighed 130 pounds again!

--Coach Treadwell had fat legs to go with his fat belly.

--Coach Carmichael couldn't think of any what ifs about the Coaches.

SENIOR OF THE WEEK

Our Senior of the Week is Ricky Carlile. We are very proud to present him with this title.

Ricky says he loves hunting and fishing along with baseball, so you can really tell he is the out-of-doors type.

Since Ricky's favorite teacher is Janet King, his favorite class is trigonometry, and is a member of the Mu Alpha Theta, you can tell he is a real mathematician. After graduation he plans to attend Auburn University.

BUDDING ENGINEER

Can't tell yet whether my son will follow in his Dad's footsteps. Blocks don't make an engineer.

But he's learning some of the basic principles of physics with which many professions deal.

On the way home from Church, when he talks about his lesson, I recognize familiar signs . . . character is still in the mold. Deep conviction, bold dedication come later. But he's grasping those basic truths on which great living rises.

For a busy engineer who used to be hit-or-miss in his church attendance, fostering the growth of a soul is a fascinating experience . . . especially as I find my own faith deepening with every reverent day!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

"The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a classroom of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sacred reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and send your Bible daily."

Washington Report

by GEORGE ANDREWS
Member of Congress
Third District of Ala.

If the pollution of our lakes and streams continues, Alabama may never again feel safe in eating the fish that come from them.

It's a big problem, and the relatively new and growing agricultural industry of fish farming may provide at least a partial solution.

The Fish Farming Assistance Act of 1971, which I have just sponsored in Congress, can bring new economic life to farming communities all over the country, just as it has in certain areas of the South, including Southeast Alabama.

Added from providing a source of pollution-free fish, fish farming legislation can bring back the family farm, which seems to be vanishing in direct proportion to the overcrowding of our large cities.

In 1969, the wholesale crop of farm-raised fish in this country was over $33 million, a small portion of the total value of fish consumed. An amazing 60 percent of all fish products consumed in the United States are imported. Most of the remaining 30 percent are salt-water varieties, with very few pond-raised fish to be had.

The Bureau of Sports Fisheries estimates that in fish farming, we are probably dealing with a $5 million dollar retail business.

Although fish farming is a small enterprise as compared to what it could be made, about 68,000 acres in the United States are under intensive warmwater fish culture, with 39,300 of these devoted to catfish production, in the manner of the Hartford Lake Fisheries in Geneva County.

Fish farming clearly has a promising future. Growing consumption of fish products, which have a high protein content, and the growing population will increase the demand for fish, both as food and for sport fishing.

This farming is not restricted to any one part of the country.

Helicopters Play Key Relief Role in L. A. Earthquake

The recent Los Angeles area earthquake demonstrated the effectiveness of helicopters when disaster strikes.

The quake struck at 6:01 a.m. February 9, and by 7 a.m. the Los Angeles City Police Department had eight of its nine Bell helicopters in the area, about 25 miles northwest of downtown L.A.

Lt. James R. Bull, officer in charge of the helicopter section had his ships flying aerial reconnaissance over Van Norman Dam, providing closed circuit television coverage to the Police Mobile Field Command Post, coordinating traffic in the evacuated area, and providing aerial protection against looters.

The fire department's helicopters shuttled doctors, blood and plasma.

The news media helicopters disseminated disaster news and evacuation orders, while industry-operated helicopters were made available to transport rescue workers and equipment.

quorum or national overproduction. The consumer cannot lose. Instead of worry he now has about the possible presence of mercury in the fish he catches or buys.

The Department of Interior's Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife and the Department of Commerce's National Marine Fisheries Service are now administering the program.

I believe that it would be more advantageous to fish farmers to have the Department of Agriculture, which has long experience in assisting the farming community, to be in charge of the federal program for fresh-water fish culture.

This bill would also authorize the Federal Government to make various forms of financial assistance available to persons to enable them to engage in fish farming. Direct loans and mortgage and rent guarantees would be made available to U.S. citizens who are otherwise qualified but simply cannot get the money at reasonable rates.

The government would participate to the extent of 90 percent of the cost of a proposed venture, but limit direct loans to 50 percent of the proposed governmental assistance.

The balance of the governmental assistance would come in the form of guarantees.

The great push in Government programs today seems to be geared to help the cities. However, more people are beginning to realize that the best way to help the cities is to develop the rural areas of this nation, so that many people will go "back to the country."

SACDC Is In Membership Drive

The Southeast Alabama Community Development Corporation started its Annual Membership Drive on April 5th. The SACDC is a Community-based economic development corporation. At the present time SACDC is establishing a $160,000 Wood Products Plant in Midway, Bullock County, Alabama and is putting $100,000 into the economy of Bullock, Pike and Coffee Counties through its Rural Loans Program.

The SACDC is controlled by its membership thru their election of SACDC Board Members, who are chosen by the people to direct the SACDC in its business ventures. The success of the SACDC depends on each and every citizen of Bullock, Pike and Coffee Counties who may renew their 1970 membership in the corporation or join the SACDC for the first time. The Annual Meeting will be held Saturday, May 22. To become directly involved with the SACDC activities, purchase a two-year membership for $1.00 which will be used for special community projects, such as tutoring, co-ops, Adult Education, Health Programs and economic improvement. Donations are solicited and are most welcome. If you or your organization is concerned with the economic development of these counties please call 897-2667 and a representative will contact you.

According to L. L. Sellers, district supervisor of Vocational Agriculture and FFA advisor for Southeast Alabama, both first and second-place winners in Land, Livestock and Dairy Judging will go to Montgomery in June to compete with other district winners from the Alabama FFA Association.

Prizes from various sponsors and chapter banks from the Alabama FFA Association were presented to the contest winners by Sellers and Joel Ellis, district supervisor.

Reception To Local Churches Join In Honor Rafferty The Lord's Supper

At Troy

In remembrance of the Last Supper held on Thursday before the Crucifixion, several Elba churches will join together tonight to celebrate the Lord's Supper.

This service of celebration is being sponsored by the Elba United Methodist Church, the First Baptist Church, and the White-Water Baptist Church. The service will begin at 7:00 p.m. at the First Baptist Church.

The Rev. James Auchmuty will bring the Communion Message. The Rev. Edwin Wells, the Rev. David Richburg will give the elements to twelve laymen from the churches.

The public is cordially invited to attend the service.

Reverend Lee Named Pastor

Rev. Frankie Lee of Dermott, Arkansas, began as pastor of Damasus Baptist Church, Route 4, Elba, Ala., April 4.

Mr. Lee attended Arkansas A & M College one year, and is in his first of a three-year course in pastoral theology at Baptist Bible Institute here. He was an insurance salesman before entering the ministry.

The church has started plans to ordain him.

Mrs. Lee was Shirley Smith of Dermott. They have two children, Randy II, and Lasha S. The family will move into a home near the church around June 1, Mr. Lee said.

Bake Sale Is Scheduled In New Brockton

The New Brockton So-sois Club will hold a Bake Sale Saturday, April 10th, starting at 9:00 a.m., between the Piggly Wiggly and the Post Office in New Brockton. Proceeds will be given to the New Brockton Fire Department for the purchase of a new fire truck.

The bake sale will be held rain or shine.

On April 15, the clock will roll back some sixty years for the audience at the Ozark Junior High School auditorium when the Southeast Alabama Arts Association in conjunction with Enterprise State Junior College presents John Chappell in his amazing recreation of America's funniest observer, Mark Twain.

The program is appropriately called "Mark Twain Tonight," for it is more than an evening of Samuel Clemens' biting wit and thought provoking comments. It is first and last, incredibly effective theatre; a three-act encounter with the man who once said "The rumors of my death have been greatly exaggerated."

The VFW members then announced plans for a big rally in support of L. L. Calley. The rally will be held in the Enterprise football stadium on Friday night of this week.

In Enterprise Monday night members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars marched on City Hall and ask Mayor Brown and Police Chief Murdock to put them in jail, as they felt they were as guilty of war crimes as L. L. Calley. Calley was recently convicted of killing civilians in Vietnam and was sentenced to life in prison.

Mayor Brown refused to arrest the man saying the city did not have the facilities for such a mass arrest and that it was not in the City's area of responsibility to enforce such laws.

Draft Board May Not Move From Elba

The 27 Alabama Selective Service local offices including Elba, scheduled to close in a reorganization of the local draft boards may stay open.

The U. S. House of Representatives has passed an amendment that prevents reducing the number of board sites.

The plan would have meant Alabama would keep all of its present 86 boards but would reduce the number of local offices from 75 to 26, according to State Director Felix R. Petrey.

Persons in Cone County, having business with the draft board office would have to drive to Lumberton.

Following the vote of the House of Representatives, General Curtis Tarr, National Selective Service Director, notified state directors that the House must pass the Senate before it is final, but until the Senate passes the House it must stay as they are, said Ben Wilson, National Selective Service public information officer.

Members of the local Coffee County board issued a plea Tuesday morning for a constant letter campaign to senators John Sparkman and James Allen, urging them to support the amendment.
